Patrol

Dan Brignone greeted all. He reported that there were no crime events in the past month, which shows that the patrol is working. He was questioned about whether the patrol could issue speeding tickets. The response is yes. He was also questioned about solicitations after dark. He informed us that it is not allowed after dark, and that solicitors must have a permit clearly visible to be able to work during daylight hours.

Zoning

Gene had no report. Dave Gray reported on the outcome of his variance request. Questions were asked about signs advertising for roommates. Signs in the right-of-way violate county ordinances.

Neighborhood Watch

Jane read a letter from 1997 that described crime activity at that time. There has been only one crime reported in the last quarter. She also reported that about 1/3 of the 600 homes in the neighborhood belong to the patrol. It was suggested that the Block Captains list be posted to the web site and/or the Neighborhood News.

Website

Henry reported that our web site had received 349 hits during the previous month. He also reported that many of the hits were now coming from foreign countries. Henry introduced Leaf Talk, a new discussion forum on the web site.

Welcome Wagon

Kathryn Jaskevich appealed for volunteers to help with the Welcome Wagon program.

Old Business

Steve opened the floor for nominations for President. Steve Smith was nominated and approved unanimously.
