Place: Westminster Presbyterian Church – Joint Meeting with Citadel Garden Club

Members present: 41

President Steve Patrick welcomed new members and visitors.

Reports

Secretary

Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Treasurer

Bonnie Jackson presented a financial report. She also reported on the changes to our bank accounts.

Security Patrol

Barry Summers highlighted the need for additional Block Captains. He also presented the new Security Brochure that will be distributed to residents. Officer David "Smitty" Smith addressed questions from the group about patrol activities.

Traffic

Barry Summers reported that the construction of Briarcliff Road/Sheridan Road intersection was well underway. He also reported that the Sheridan Road sidewalk project was almost complete. He announced that sidewalks and possibly some additional stop signs have been requested. A Neighborhood Slowdown is being planned for later in the spring, possibly in conjunction with a dedication ceremony for the sidewalks. He reported that the residents on the western end of Citadel Drive will have to go on a waiting list for a new traffic study before they can be considered for additional speed humps. He also reported that we are beginning the lobbying process for securing sidewalks for LaVista Road.

Website

Henry Batten reported that website activity remains high. He made a quick presentation about the website for those visitors who may not have been familiar with the site.

Zoning

No report.

Park Committee

Donna Newman reported that volunteers from Peachtree Road UMC had redone the Beech Haven Road entrance to the park nature trail. She announced a park clean-up for 3 May, 9:00 – 2:00. She asked for volunteers to donate daylilies, hostas, etc. for planting in the park. She reported that the county Parks Department is evaluating the drainage problem with Roads and Drainage.

Welcome Wagon

Kathryn Perkins asked that residents call her when new people move in to the neighborhood.

New Business

Steve Patrick announced that our association had adopted LaVista Road and Briarcliff Road to keep them free of trash.

Don Hampton introduced the Citadel Garden Club, as well as speaker Tom Harvey from the Atlanta Botanical Garden.

Minutes of the Quarterly Meeting
