Reports

• Secretary

The minutes from the last Quarterly Meeting were presented and approved.

Program

Steve introduced our guests for our Political Forum, including Representative Pat Gardner, DeKalb CEO Vernon Jones, and DeKalb Commissioner Judy Yates.

Old Business

- Susan Starr responded to an inquiry about the Cheshire Bridge Road Task Force. Her assessment of the situation was that the City of Atlanta was footing dragging the project. We were urged to send e-mails to city officials expressing our concern that this project is not complete.
- Gene Schmidt gave a report from a meeting with the Lindridge/Martin Manor Association where Club 112 was discussed. The club is currently "closed for renovations." A hearing will be held on April 19 on whether to renew the liquor license for the club.

New Business

- Brian Key announced the next meeting of the NeighborAid group, Sunday April 18 at his home.
- Don Hampton made an announcement concerning upcoming Citadel Garden Club events.

The next Quarterly Meeting will be Thursday, July 8, 2004.

The meeting adjourned at 8:07 pm.

Respectfully submitted,
Henry R. Batten, Secretary
